

The person who's changed my life

THE PERSON

Blessed Pope John Paul II is the person who's changed my life in a positive way. I admire his personality and friendliness towards every nation and other religions.

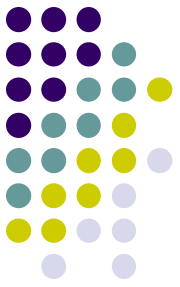

What kind of person was he?

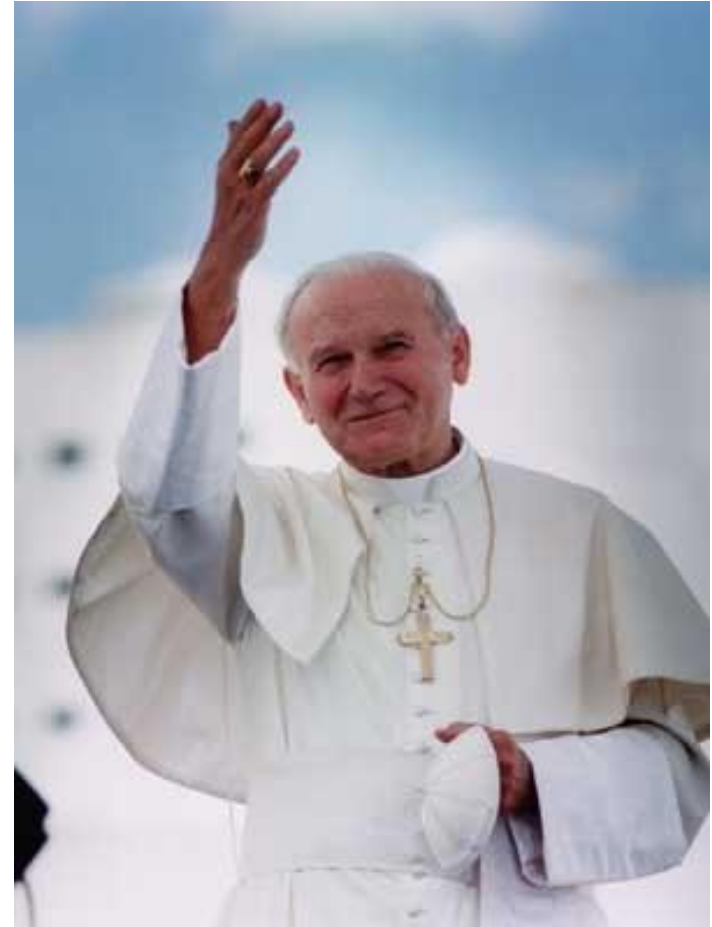

He was a nice, friendly person who was always available to give help and support. He was a determined person who never hesitated to make difficult decisions, no matter of the consequences. He visited different continents and experienced other cultures.

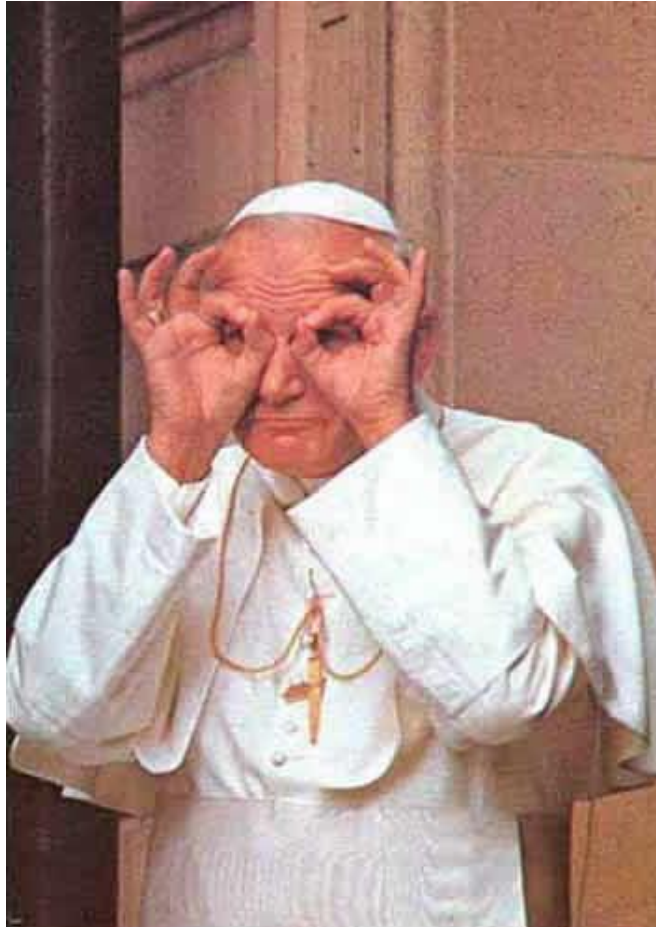

Has anything changed in my life after his death?

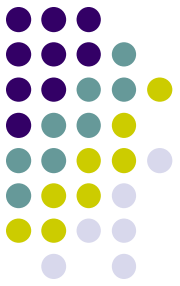

Yes, of course. He helped me to see the world in a positive way. In all difficulties and troubles I repeat one of the most famous Pope's sentence „Thank you, Lord, for loving me this way.”

Why did I choose him?

- I chose John Paul II and I think it was the right choice because he deserves to be remembered. I was touched by his lessons and I still see his role as a good teacher and shepherd who is leading people to Heaven. In my opinion he was the gift from God.
